

A program for spouses, partners,
relatives and friends –
when the sexual behavior
of someone you love troubles you

“God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can,
and the wisdom to know the difference.”

SRA- Anon is a program for family and friends of the sex addict, who share their experience, strength and hope with each other. With time and practice, it has helped many people gain serenity.

Meetings provide a safe place to openly and honestly share thoughts and feelings. We learn that we are not alone and begin to use the tools of the program: the Twelve Steps – adapted from Alcoholics Anonymous, phone calls, literature and slogans.

If you're wondering if SRA-Anon is for you, try our meeting:
